

RQ Training For You

One-on-one, tailor-made, custom training for YOUR company, on the topics YOU want!

Our Professional Services Specialists will use their years of industry knowledge and RQ expertise to build a workshop specifically for your company. Whether you are new to iQmetrix, an experienced user, or have a single or multiple locations, we can build an educational program for you.

You chose the levels of the employees you want trained and the topics. OR, allow us to customize your training based on an in-depth database review and a detailed fact finding call about your employees, processes and procedures currently in place.

Examples of our most popular topics include:

- Executive Training – Reports, dashboards & metrics: How to use them efficiently and effectively
- Reports – How to best use the rich and robust suite of reports available in the reporting module
- Inventory Best Practices
- Finance Training
- Best Practices for Individual RQ Modules
- Sales Management Training on Utilizing RQ's Operations and Marketing Modules
- Sales Management Training – Operations, Marketing, Customer Experience
- Identifying the areas in which you can improve and make best use of RQ

You can either bring your team to us or we will come to you.

How much does this service cost?

Come Our Way! If you bring your team to our U.S. Headquarters in Davidson, NC, the cost is $900 per day, plus $200 per hour of preparation time. We have a 15-person max seating limit. We require at least three weeks' notice to develop and prepare this training program.

We'll Come to You! We can also come to your location. We require at least six weeks' notice for this training. The cost is $1,500 per day, plus all travel expenses (air, hotel, meals, etc.), plus $200 per hour development and preparation time. A 2 day minimum training program is required.

Please note: The database review and fact finding calls themselves are likely to take at least four to five hours and thus will be charged accordingly. The rate as noted above is $200 per hour.

For more information or to register, please contact training@iQmetrix.com.